

“Borrowed words” in English

Many of the words that we use in English come from other languages.

Can you guess which languages the following words come from?

Banana

Bungalow

Caravan

Chocolate

Coach

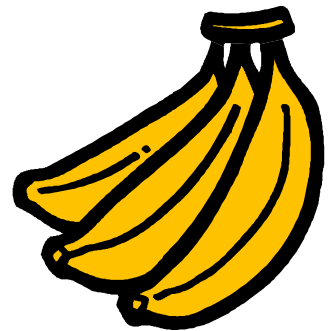

Marmalade

Robot

Shampoo

Umbrella

Yoghurt

To help you, here is the list of the languages (in a different order), together with some clues!

Banana From a language spoken in Senegal, Africa	Bengali
Bungalow From a language spoken in Bangladesh	Czech
Caravan From a language spoken in Iran	Farsi
Chocolate From a language spoken in Mexico	Hindi
Coach From a language spoken in Hungary	Hungarian
Marmalade From a language spoken in Portugal	Italian
Robot From a language spoken in the Czech Republic	Nahuatl
Shampoo From a language spoken in India	Portuguese
Umbrella From a language spoken in Italy	Turkish
Yoghurt From a language spoken in Turkey	Wolof
